

COMMUNITY SERVICE DEPARTMENTS

When the holidays are over by the time January rolls around your team is feeling a little sluggish. The cold weather has them down, not much to do but watch football (well, that's about to end).

Have them saying "IT'S NICE in THE ICE" for Special Olympics

1. You can use the Plunge as a "Team Builder," i.e. Inter-Department or a Department Challenge!
2. See which department can raise the most funds for Special Olympics. This can be accomplished several ways:
 -  Choose one member to represent his/ her department. Have all the members collecting pledges to support that one person. Or have each team member take the plunge and collect pledges.
 -  Take a digital picture of each employee to attach to a can for pledges; set the cans in the break room or wherever there is a lot of traffic, and the person with the most pledges will choose who will take the plunge.
 -  Have each department come up with a theme and design costumes and/or t-shirt to be worn to the plunge and select a very special "Team" name.
 -  Make a sign for your Department with a graph to show how much you're department has collected to keep the other departments on their toes trying to match funds

These are just a few ideas ...be creative...go for it...
There are unlimited ways to make this work for your Department.
3. Your company team can pitch a tent and hang a banner showing your Company spirit in Iglooville the day of the plunge. Details are enclosed for you to review.
4. Form a Tug-a-War team and strive to take home the TEAM TROPHY and a team picture.
5. You can even have members of your team register as "Chicken Plungers". Details enclosed.
6. This will be a win-win project. Special Olympics will be receiving funds raised to help us to continue to support our program. We offer 17 sports and competitions to our athletes with intellectual disabilities. Your company will benefit from the team-building atmosphere. Your employees will be gaining team-building skills as they work together to meet their goals for the plunge and they will be putting their creative thinking to work.

IGLOOVILLE – What is it?

Iglooville is the Polar Plunge's answer to "Tailgating." It's a very large area set aside for teams and even individual groups of plungers to set up a tent, hang a banner or sign, or do something else to let everyone know who they are.

It gives you a meeting place for all your team members, a place to leave your many layers of clothing, etc. It is a great place to call home at the plunge.

The atmosphere at Iglooville is invigorating! Remember your folks are going to be saying

"IT'S NICE in THE ICE"!

Iglooville gives the Plunger the opportunity to meet and get together and go to the PHOTO BOOTH for their TEAM picture. Following the plunge, a free picture will be sent to the person who registered the team at the PHOTO BOOTH.

CHILLVILLE – What is it? Always weather permitting!

Chillville is the Polar Plunge's pre-plunge play area. It's an area set set-aside for anyone attending to participate in games and various activities prior to the plunge.

This year in Chillville you will be able to find a Moon-Walk and Bungee Race (weather permitting). In addition you will find our semi-famous "Super Bowl Football Team Trivia Game". DJ Tommy will supply the music and you will also be able to find "Rascal" from our Harrisburg Senators, McGruff the "Crime Dog" and some of our local High School Mascot's just hanging out, waiting to have their pictures taken with some of our participants.

We will once again offer our Tug-of-War competition.
